

We are a Child Safe Organisation

Our commitment to child and young person safety

- Carers SA has zero tolerance to harm against children and young people. All allegations and safety concerns will be treated very seriously and consistently in the best interest of children and young people.
- We support and respect all children and young people, as well as our staff and volunteers.
- We are committed to the safety, participation and empowerment of all children and young people.
- We understand our legal and moral obligations to contact authorities when we are worried about a child or young person's safety.
- We will support our people with training and robust policies and procedures to support best practice.
- Carers SA is committed to preventing children and young people being harmed and identifying risks early and removing these risks.
- Carers SA has robust human resources and recruitment practices to reduce the risk of child abuse by new and existing staff.
- Carers SA is committed to ensuring that the workforce has appropriate and relevant child and young person safety training and continuing the education of our staff on child abuse risks.
- We are committed to providing inclusive and safe spaces for all children and young people, including children and young people who:
 - are Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander
 - come from a different country or speak a different language
 - identify as LGBTQIA+
 - have a disability
- We have specific policies and procedures in place that support our staff and volunteers to achieve these commitments.
- Carers SA is committed to the implementation of the National Principles for Child Safe Organisations.
